

APPEAL

Clubhouse Development Fund

We have achieved a lot and this has only been possible with the support of YOU our Volunteers, Supporters, Sponsors, Players and Parents We now need your support more than ever with the Ballymun United Football Club Development Fund Appeal. We have the largest soccer Club, in terms of members in the Community and we would like to have facilities that you our members can be proud of.

We have all travelled around the country and seen the fantastic facilities that other Clubs have and Ballymun United Football Club and our Community deserve no less. We have made great strides in our development since our club was formed in 1969.

We are almost there with our clubhouse completion, we are appealing to YOU to assist us raise the funding to complete the facility

To this end the Club is embarking on an ambitious development programme, comprising:

- The completion of the clubhouse at St Margaret's Road, Ballymun (beside IKEA);
- The enhancement of the All Weather facility ;
- Installation of flood lighting, and additional changing facilities, etc.

Our priority is getting the clubhouse facility finished as a matter of urgency (pic below)
